

NAPS AND BROWNS PLAY FIFTEEN INNINGS TIE

Yale Varsity Eight Defeated by University of Pennsylvania Crew

KLEPFER PITCHES WONDERFUL GAME

Holds Browns to Nine Scattered Hits and Allowed Only One Free Pass.

ST. LOUIS, April 22.—Cleveland and St. Louis battled fifteen innings to a one to one tie here today. It was the greatest pitching duel of the season, Klepfer for Cleveland twirling the full game, while Davenport, who opposed him, retired for a pinch hitter after going eight innings. Plank then went in and held the visitors to two hits for the remainder of the game.

Nine scattered hits were made off Klepfer and he gave but one base on balls, purposely passing Pratt when the locals got a man as far as third in the fourteenth. Cleveland started the scoring in the second. Smith led off with a single. Gandill sacrificed, and Davenport's balk sent Smith to third. He scored while Siler was stopping Turner's vicious grounder. St. Louis tied the score in the ninth. Siler reached first on Chapman's error, was sacrificed to second, and scored on Shotten's single.

In the Wake of the News

By Ring W. Lardner.

THE DIARY OF A SIREN

"I just wanted to tell you that I have been working hard ever since I got here and I am sure now that I have overcome my temporary wildness."
"I am glad to hear it," said Mr. Weeghman. "We will give you a chance to show us something before long."
And with that he walked into his private office.

"O Lennie," I said when we were alone. "How did you keep yourself in check?"
"It's a good thing you were here, girlie," he replied. "You saved him from getting killed. I don't fight in the presence of ladies."
"O Lennie," I said. "I admire you all the more for what you have just done. It is true courage that respects a lady's feelings."
"Well," said Lennie, "you will find out some time that I am not as much of a boob as you treated me."
And he walked out before I had a chance to reply. But he threw me a look that said plainer than words that our quarrel was at an end and that soon we will be on the same heavenly terms as before that awful letter of mine roused the devil within him.

APRIL 20.
I am alone here in the office. I asked Mr. Weeghman to allow me to attend the ball game, but he said somebody would have to stay here and answer the phone calls and I had to pretend that I did not care, though it nearly broke my heart not to be on hand to applaud Lennie's efforts if he happens to be the man chosen to act as pitcher in the big game.
But he will know I am with him in spirit, for I have sent out a bouquet of violets to be presented to him on the field and on the card I wrote "From one who admires true courage and wants you to call her up." He must win, diary. He must win!

APRIL 21.
O diary, Lennie just called up to thank me for the flowers and he did not pitch yesterday on account of having caught cold in his arm. But he asked if I would go to a show with him tonight and I have accepted. O diary, will the day never end.

LONG CY IS A CLASSY OUTER GARDENER

Cy Williams.

Long Cy Williams, the Cub center fielder, is probably the greatest ground-covering outfielder now in the profession. There is something uncanny about the way this fellow can go back and get them—reminds one of McLeer in his greatest day. So far, the Cubs claim, they haven't seen any ball yard where Williams couldn't get to the middle wall and pull down the flies. He is also a dangerous long driving hitter, and his only weakness is his throwing arm. It isn't strained or glass, but merely of inferior strength, which could probably be improved by proper exercise.

YANKS WIN ELEVEN INNING GAME FROM THE SENATORS; 3-2

Bowman, Pinch Hitter, Doubles in Eleventh and Scores Two Runs for the Yankees.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—New York beat Washington three to two today in a thrilling eleven inning game. High's single, Cook's sacrifice and Gedeon's safety put over the visitors' first run in the fourth. The locals tied the score in the sixth on Foster's triple and Rondeau's double. In the eleventh Nunamaker, for the Yankees, singled, Gansel got a Texas leaguer and both scored when Bauman, hitting for High, got a two bagger. For Washington Morgan drew a pass, Henry got a single, McBride sacrificed and Morgan scored when William, hitting for Harper knocked a grounder to Peckinpaugh.

GRINNELL COLLEGE MAN BREAKS RECORD

For 220 Yard University Dash and Wisconsin Relay Team Lowers Record.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 22.—Two world's records were established today in the university clash at the seventh annual Drake relay meet, held in the Drake stadium here.
In the special 220 yard university dash, the feature event of the program, Hoyt of Grinnell college, won in 21 2-5. According to Coaches Stagg, of Chicago; Farrell, of Michigan; and Gill, of Illinois, Hoyt's time represents a new world's record for the 220 yard dash on a curved outdoor track.
The best previous record for 220 yards on a track similar to the Drake course, was made by P. J. Walsh, at Montreal, September 21, 1902. He ran it in 21 3-5. In the half mile relay, Wisconsin made the second world's record in 128 4-5. Three meet records also were broken.

COACH HICKMAN HAVING TROUBLE

In Selecting an Outfield for the West Virginia Baseball Team.

MORGANTOWN, April 22.—With his final selections for the pitching staff made and his infielders decided upon, Coach Charles Hickman, of the West Virginia University nine, is now concerning himself with the personnel of the outfield. Coach Hickman is in a quandary, nothing unusual however, for a college coach of any sort, as to the make-up of the 'varsity outfield and he is still experimenting. The outfield didn't come up to expectations in the big Wheeling series, which was split, and for that reason it is likely to be changed.

Latterday, June, Huffman and Chenoweth of Raybeck will be the first four pitchers, ranking in the belief of the writer in the order named. Captain Fidler, behind the bat, is certain beyond doubt and the infield is complete with Lambert at first, Leatherwood at second, Rodgers at short and Armstrong at third. Lambert is improving his form around first base and Coach Hickman is spending as much time with the big football center as is possible to correct some of his defects in taking and handling fly and ground balls at first.

Armstrong at third, although only a freshman, is the fielding sensation of the year. He is taking coaching like a duck does water and is absorbing every point as it is handed to him by the older men. He was cool under fire in the Wheeling games and had but one slip-up during the series. He is hitting better and acquired some slaying art during the week.
In the outfield Hersey at center is the only certainty to date. Coach Hickman has been experimenting with Steadman in the right, but the big fellow, although trying his level best, is not fetching at the bat. He has a wonderful arm and a finished form in fielding, but his stick work will probably be his downfall. In left, Flynn has been fielding in the form required, but his heavy hitting apparent the first of the year is glimmering. He seems out of place in the outfield and this mental state may be affecting his hitting temporarily. It is hoped that just as soon as he acclimates himself to the situation he will return to hitting form. Ayars and Stoops, left and right fielders last year, are not out of the race by any means. In fact, they are really showing more hitting strength than either of their competitors. Stoops is hitting in hard luck as he has drives pulled down on him every day.

The team appeared in natty new uniforms in the Bethany games this week and presented a fine appearance. The 'varsity will leave Wednesday for Washington, D. C., to play the Maryland Aggies, Georgetown University and Penn State. This will be the feature trip of the year and the men are working their level best to be chosen for the jaunt.

WORLD'S RECORD

For 120 Yard High Hurdles is Equaled by Fred Murray of Stanford University.

BERKELEY, Calif., April 22.—Fred Murray, Stanford University's track star today won the 120 yard high hurdles in the world's record time of fifteen seconds flat and also took first in the 100 yard dash and in the 220 yard sprint at the Pacific Association Championship held on the New California oval. California won the meet with a total of eighty-five points, Stanford was second with sixty-one.

Pennsylvania Rowers Take the Lead at End of Mile and Never Headed Off.

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—The University of Pennsylvania varsity eight-oared shell crew defeated Yale over the mile and half course on the Schuylkill river here today by close to a length of open water. Yale's junior crew beat Pennsylvania's juniors by a quarter of a length. Today's races were Pennsylvania's first under the coaching of Joe Wright, the Canadian oarsman.

Both varsity crews got away together at the start, each doing considerable splashing. Pennsylvania, propelled by the fast powerful strokes of Harry Ross, struck a forty to the minute clip. Yale, whose pace was set by Harman, rowing somewhat slower kept pace with Pennsylvania for a quarter of a mile. Neither was able to gain any advantage in the first half mile, but starting at this point Pennsylvania began to forge ahead and slowly left the Blue of Yale in the rear. At the mile Pennsylvania was leading by a quarter of a length of open water which was increased as the crews approached the finish. Pennsylvania's time was seven minutes and thirty seconds.

Yale's junior crew led the Pennsylvania juniors throughout their race. Yale's time was 7:28 3-5. The difference in time between the varsity and junior races was due to a change in conditions. The juniors raced with a wind down the course while the varsity race was rowed in a calm.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE ALMOST COMPLETED

For the 1916 Davis and Elkins College Gridiron Warriors.

ELKINS, April 22.—The Davis and Elkins football schedule for next fall is almost completed. Athletic Director Mullenex has succeeded in arranging a very attractive schedule, one that will be equally as good, if not better than last year. Bethany will not be on the schedule, but Franklin College takes the place and will be met in Wheeling October 21. Marietta College will be met again in Marietta. West Virginia has made an offer for the opening game, September 22, and in all probability this game will be arranged. Glenview, while Fairmont normal and Keyser prep will constitute the minor games, while West Virginia, Marietta, Marshall and Wesleyan will make the list of big games. Marshall College will play in this year on November 18. Negotiations are under way for a game with Wesleyan at Elkins also, but this has not been closed yet. The home schedule will be a very attractive one, with Glenville, Fairmont normal, Marshall and Wesleyan (if arranged). This will insure four good games which is as many as could be played at home considering the long distances of other teams would have to come. Six of the games have been contracted for and the other four will likely be closed before long. The schedule as it now stands is as follows:
September 23—West Virginia, Morgantown.
September 30—Marietta College, Marietta, O.
October 7—Glenville Normal, Elkins.
October 14—Fairmont normal, Fairmont.
October 21—Franklin College, at Wheeling.
October 28—Linsly Institute, at Wheeling.
November 4—Fairmont Normal, Elkins.
November 11—Keyser Prep, Keyser.
November 18—Marshall, Elkins.
November 25—Open.
November 30—Open.

BETHANY CANCELS

Three Games Scheduled to Be Played at Buckhannon with Wesleyan.

BUCKHANNON, April 22.—Totally unexpected a telegram was received by Manager Stansbury of Wesleyan, late tonight from the manager of the Bethany College baseball team from Wheeling stating that it would be impossible for the Bethany team to play here on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Bethany was scheduled to play West Virginia at Morgantown today, but it is presumed that this game was called off also, and that some very important happenings prevented the playing of the games here and occasioned the Bethany team's moving directly home.
Negotiations were opened with Marietta College to play here Friday and Saturday and it is presumed that the games can be arranged as Marietta was anxious to play with Bethany and arranged for games early last week.
